

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE—SARE IMAGE/VIDEO/FIGURE RELEASE AND AUTHORIZATION FORM

- 4	eo/figure name(s) (including file name):
1. 2.
3.
Description room)	on of (circle one) image(s)/video(s)/figure(s): (use back of form or more pages if you need more
1.
2.
3. .
Department and/or figure internet, no the content	rant the Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education (SARE) program and United States of Agriculture (USDA) nonexclusive rights and permissions to use this/these image(s) and/or video(s) are(s) in their current and all future information products. Uses may include (but are not limited to) the ews releases and print publications, per USDA needs. Whenever possible, SARE will provide credit to trauthor. If a minor is present in the photo, I obtained the consent of his/her parent or legal (see below).
I agree to	these conditions.
Content au	uthor's signature Date

•	nt name here
Phone:
Address:
la	am not (select one) a current or past paid staff of SARE or a state PDP coordinator.
For photo ("Minor") w	s depicting minors: I am the parent or legal guardian of
-	(parent/guardian signature)
For Project	ct Investigators: If you are submitting this form for a photo uploaded to the MySARE projects database, vide:
	Your project number File name And a thumbnail or description of the uploaded photograph.

Begun in 1988, the Sustainable Agriculture Research &
Education (SARE) program is a national initiative funded by USDANIFA to advance sustainable farming systems through research,
education and extension.